WHAT IS ADVOCACY?

Advocacy is speaking, acting or writing to promote, protect and defend the human rights of people with disability.

HOW CAN AN RDAS ASSIST YOU?

RDAS can assist anyone with disability (of all ages) that has a human rights issue.

We do this by:

- Protecting and promoting the rights of people with disability
- Providing information on your rights
- Assist you to identify and address instances of discrimination
- Assist you to make a complaint if you are not happy with a service you have received
- Assist you to speak out and defend your rights and interests
- Assist you with reviews and appeals.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

RDAS runs community information sessions across Southern NSW and North East Victoria for people with disability, families, carers, educational institutes and other community services.

We provide information about self-advocacy, human rights, discrimination, NDIS access, reviews and other issues.

RDAS is funded by the Australian Government Department of Social Services.
